In 1992, James was asked to participate as a union carpenter in helping an organization called "Christmas In April: Rebuilding Together Jersey City." This non-profit organization is solely made up of volunteers whose mission is to rehab homes for the elderly, handicapped, and low income. Four years later he became a Board member and since that time has been involved in the rehab of over two hundred homes and thirty non-profit institutions. He has been a volunteer sports coach in town for over thirty-five years. He has coached a variety of baseball, basketball, football, and soccer teams and is in his 21st year coaching PAL basketball. He is also a High School Football Official. James and his wife started the parents group for the Bayonne High School Soccer program in 1986. They also sponsored a child from Northern Ireland through Project Children for eleven consecutive years. James always makes sure that in the end family comes first.
