Over the past ten years since Warren County Habitat for Humanity was started, there is one person who has remained essential to our operation. She is Mary Trubek. Our first house was built in Washington, NJ in 2001. Since then, we have built two more in Phillipsburg and are currently working on a duplex for two families in Harmony Township. Each house was designed by Mary. Mary is a licensed architect with a degree from Columbia University. Mary has been on the WCHFH Building Committee since the beginning. The big impact here is that not only did Mary design all of our houses pro bono, but she is at the work site every Saturday and has been since we started. She is the person we rely on for building knowledge, permit applications, finding other professionals to volunteer and even making coffee and bringing donuts to the site.
