

YOUTH VOLUNTEER KATHERINE AMIGO

GIFTED TO GIVE! Over the past four years Katherine Amigo has proven to be a selfless and caring volunteer for local charities and a tireless leader for inspiring many students to get involved. Katherine has solely planned four community charity events, raising a total of $10,000.

Katherine embodies the spirit of volunteerism. She adopted the motto, “Volunteer...it’s contagious!” To promote student volunteerism among her peers and community, she utilizes her musical training, leadership, and organizational skills, by performing benefit concerts. Her concerts evolved to include a dance-a-thon and food drive, as she inspired more and more students to participate.

Additionally, Katherine actively volunteers with other organizations such as the NJ Special Olympics and the March of Dimes. She is active in the Mercer County Youth Council and State Youth Executive Committee, helping to raise awareness of the group’s mission among New Jersey’s youth. At school, she participates in five clubs engaged in community service projects, serving as an officer in two of them.

In thinking about all that Katherine has achieved, we look forward with anticipation at how she will undoubtedly continue to better the lives of others in the years to come.
